Prayer Mobilization

Tomorrow begins the season of Lent with Ash Wednesday. In the Church, for nearly two-thousand years, Lent has signaled a season to pause and reflect on our own spiritual condition as we, like Jesus, set our faces toward Jerusalem. In this season, when we begin to intentionally journey toward Jerusalem and the passion of our Lord, Lent is a season in which Christians have chosen to follow the example of Jesus in the wilderness to take forty days for prayer, fasting, and drawing close to the Father before launching into the next season of ministry that He has for us

In a lot of ways, this Lent seems to me to be even more important and significant than Lenten seasons I have traveled in the past. With war in the Ukraine, the hope of seeing an end to Covid restrictions, social and moral chaos in our own nation, and our Regional call to Prayer Mobilization that will reach to all of us by Pentecost, I am feeling that this Lent calls us to spend time in the wilderness with God, praying, fasting, and seeking to hear from Him with a level of desperation that we have not, perhaps, felt before.

We need to hear from Him for ourselves. Most everyone I have spoken with is at a level of wrung out that they have never experienced before. Pastors and laypeople alike are just at the end of themselves. They feel like they are just “going through the motions.” They, we, need to hear from God in a new and fresh way. We need to drink from streams of living water and have our souls restored from the Shepherd who “leads us beside still waters; who restores our souls.”

We need to hear from Him for our churches. As churches discover what it means to be the church in a post-pandemic world, we need to hear from the One who has a plan for us. Jeremiah 29:11 tells us that He has a plan and it is a good one, full of hope and prosperity. We need to hear that plan, because “we got nuttin’.” Read Jeremiah 29:12-13 and it will tell you how to download God’s good plan. Here’s a hint: you can do it during Lent.

We need to hear from Him for our nation. If you haven’t figured it out, our leaders have no clue how to fix the mess we are in. That’s not because they are Republicans or Democrats. It’s because they are human. We keep trying to fix problems that only have Divine solutions with human ingenuity. Our leaders simply are not smart enough, clever enough, or decisive enough. They also don’t pray enough. However, we can intercede for them in such a way that we can help them to hear from God in such a way that they thing God’s idea is their good idea. Let’s quit fighting against our leaders and start fighting for them—on our knees.

We need to hear from Him for our region. Our regional director, Dr. Stan Reeder, has called the USA/Canada Region to mobilize all 500,000 of us to pray for God to lead our region into a new era of missional effectiveness. As I said before God has a plan and we need to hear it. You will be hearing from your pastor in the coming days about how you can be a part of “hearing and speaking” as we seek the leadership of the Spirit preparing for another Pentecost for USA/Canada in the Church of the Nazarene.

John Wesley said, “God does nothing but in answer to prayer.” Jesus told us to pray that the Kingdom would be on earth as it is in Heaven. If we want God to release the things He has in store for us on earth, we have to “ask, seek, and knock.” There is no better time to storm the gates of heaven in prayer than Lent. I hope you will join me.
