

People of the Word

In my personal devotions, I have been reading the Psalms from The Passion Translation. Listen to this passage from Psalm 119: 97-104. I will write it here in prose style:

O how I love and treasure your law; throughout the day I fill my heart with its light! By considering your commands I have an edge over my enemies, for I take seriously everything you say. You have given me more understanding than those who teach me, for I've absorbed your eye-opening revelation. You have graced me with more insight than the old sages because I have not failed to walk in the light of your ways. I refused to bend my morals when temptation was before me so that I could become obedient to your Word. I refuse to turn away from difficult truths, for you yourself have taught me to love your words. How sweet are your living promises to me; sweeter than honey is your revelation-light. For your truth is the source of my understanding, not the falsehoods of those who don't know you, which I despise.

Before you read on, I invite you to go back and ponder on what you have just read and ask yourself if what the Psalmist has described is your heart.

Is the law of God a treasure to you or a burden?

Have you absorbed God's Word, or do you struggle to recall a verse when asked to recite a favorite verse in public?

Do you bend to temptation, or bend to the Word when tempted?

Do you embrace even difficult truths because they are God's truths?

Do you only want the sweet promises of God, or are all the words of God sweet to you?

When you need understanding, do you seek it in the Word or in the world?

It occurs to me that we generally cry out to God when we need a savior. And our God is gracious, He always provides the savior that we need. The history of the journey of God with humanity is the history of God responding to our need of a savior, and The Savior. He is so Good that way!

Yet, when God cries out to us, He is always looking for a follower. Whether it is Abraham, Moses, the Judges, Kings, Prophets, Disciples, or early Christians, the invitation of God to us is always "follow me." His Word is the instruction manual for followers. For that reason, the Psalmist loved God's Word. God does not say to us what He said to Abram, "Follow me blindly." He says, "Follow me with this map."

Might we rephrase the Psalm's opening words to say, "O how I love and treasure your map; throughout the day I fill my heart with its directions!" Might I suggest that if we used the map more often, we might not need saving as much?

Moses and members of his family may soon be spotted around Carlsbad.

The Production Company Studio 523, LLC, plans to shoot footage in the area the week of Oct. 13-17. They are filming a pilot for a show called "The Promised Land," which seeks to take a lighter, sometimes humorous, approach to the Biblical journey Moses and family members took across the desert on their way to Israel.

"In the pilot, we follow Moses and his family as they try to solve problems among the Israelite community during their journey from Egypt to the Promised Land," write the show's producers.

The movie's organizers stressed that they are being highly respectful of Biblical message.

"Rather than looking at these Biblical heroes on stained glass windows, let's look at them like everyday people," they wrote. "At the end of the day, our hope is that people watch the show because it's funny...and eventually would desire to dive into scripture to experience God personally."

According to informational material, "The Promised Land" has a pilot budget of $125,000, and filming will take place near the sand dunes around Hackberry Lake, as well as near Lake Avalon. Carlsbad's Church Street Church of the Nazarene is helping by providing various production resources, including a Production office. The show is looking for a large number of background actors on Oct. 15 and 16. The 15th will be "Meeting Tent Day" and the 16th will be "Campsite Day" where extras are needed. The show will need 10-15 actors daily, and you can get more information on the website www.thepromisedlandseries.tv. The large crowd filming days will be family friendly and include a meet and greet with the producers, as well as opportunities for a behind the scenes look at production.

Because of their limited budget, the makers of "The Promised Land" are asking to borrow campers, gators (golf carts), RV's and tents. While some extras are needed, they are also really hoping for some volunteers to assist with security. They'll also be supporting small businesses during their time filming in the area.

The end goal is to use this pilot episode to pitch a series and get a fully funded series to film in New Mexico. We recently had the chance to meet with "Promised Land" producers Richie Johns, Jeremy Crouch and Mitch Hudson. We were impressed by their enthusiasm for the project and desire to film around Carlsbad. For more information about possibly participating or assisting with this endeavor, please visit www.thepromisedlandseries.tv.

Sincerely, Mayor Dale Janway

NM NYI-Zone 3 Mission Event Sept 24, 2022 Lovington CON

This is the Scripture the Lord placed on my heart as I began seeking an area for our Zone to serve in a missional capacity. On Saturday, September 24th, NM NYI Zone 3 met up in Lovington, NM to volunteer at the Heart's Desire Thrift Store. A whopping 35 people were representing churches from Carlsbad, Clovis, Hobbs, Lovington, and Portales. Upwards of 50 people worked to sort through donations, hang clothes, wash shoes, and some of the littles made sure the toys were in working order! The donation pile was almost to the ceiling when we arrived, but we nearly conquered it as we wrapped up the morning the pile was brought down to the ground level of the room. Lovington Naz had a hamburger fundraiser and served a delicious lunch! After sweating and sorting, we headed to Chaparral Park for fun and games. Some played kickball and volleyball while others enjoyed the playground. Some gathered in the shade and partnered up to play corn hole. The next Zone event will be fellowship oriented. The tentative plan is to meet up at the CORE in Hobbs, NM on December 10, 2024. If you have any questions about Zone Events, please, contact Summer Neill (sdneill81@icloud.com or 803.257.2067). May the Lord bless you and keep you safe and well until we meet again.
