

A Prayer for Teachers and Students

Heavenly Father, King of all,
We come to you as approaches Fall
To place into your loving hands,
Those who will before our children stand.

Theirs is no small minor task,
So, before You we would come to ask,
That whatever would be their chosen place,
There they may receive Your grace,

To care, shape, and deliver love,
For those who have been from above,
Assigned into their thrusted hands
As a trust, not as a demand.

That they would be taught to know both right from wrong,
Whether taught by lesson or by song,
To know both things and grace,
By teachers who are Your safe place.

And for our children, this we pray,
That this school year, come next May,
Will have been filled with peace and friends
And come to no unhappy ends.

Protect our children all this year
From all the things that would cause them tears.
And if they come, cause us to be,
The ones who would be Christ like Thee.

Teach us the Way to walk in You,
So when we see these precious few,
Our hearts would see them as you do
And take to us the Spirit's cue
Our charge to care, and lead, and teach, our young
To come to know the blessed One.
