

JULY 2020

We really do miss each other. It is July and I am looking out my window at a vacant Bonita Park thinking about how important July normally is to our district. In July, we usually fill these grounds three times, with children, youth, and our district family. Usually, we get to enjoy catching up with our district friends and with God and we set time aside for worship and for play. Right now, it is difficult to do either and we are getting frustrated, lonely, and even, depressed. We really do miss each other.

If you are feeling that way too, as a church or individually, let me encourage you not to disconnect from the people that you love. Make sure you are staying connected with zoom or messenger or another platform. Make sure you continue to make church attendance a priority each Sunday. Do everything you can do to include people in your daily lives. I have found that spending time with various groups on zoom has been a real boost to me personally and has done a lot to make me feel less isolated.

If you find you have excess time on your hands, this is also a good time to draw close to God. If you were planning of spending a week here at Bonita Park to draw close to God, why don't you take a week to spend extra time reading your Bibles or working your way through that book you have been meaning to read? Set aside the same two hours per day that you would have set aside had you come to Bonita Park to press into the heart of Jesus. You will find yourself refreshed and renewed, even though you did not get a chance to breathe our fresh mountain air.

If your vacation has turned into a stay-cation, take the time to stay close to Jesus. Be intentional about spending time in prayer. Watch a movie together that will nourish your souls. Spend time as a family working through some Bible-based activities or find a way together to serve people who are most at risk of being neglected during these days of social isolation.

No doubt, you have said at one time or another, "If I only had the time, I would...". Think of this season as God's gift of time. Slow down. Listen to the Spirit. Wait for God to speak. Spend time talking with and listening to God and to one another. Turn off the TV and enjoy some quiet. God has not quit talking just because we cannot gather to listen. If you are missing camp, take a week for your own personal "family" camp. God may surprise you with what He has to say. He may be saying, "I really miss you too."

JULY 2020

I am so grateful to all of you for attending our first ever all virtual NMI Convention! Thank you to everyone who helped to bring it all together and to everyone for your participation! Because of the postponement of our General Convention, we did not have any ballots for our NMI Convention this year. We will elect delegates for General Convention at a future Convention.

I hope you have taken the time to go through the documents in the district NMI drop box we created for delegates and local NMI Presidents. The documents contained there are the most current information we have on these various ministries. Most of the links will take you to the NMI website: nazarene.org/nm. You will find this to be valuable source of information for each month's emphasis.

Please spend time here to familiarize yourself with all that NMI is doing! (If you are using another web site, the information will not be current) The website is full of ideas for presenting NMI information to your congregation in a variety of ways!

In lieu of an offering this year, please respond to the Spirit in some way. Whether to a local compassionate ministry, Africa Nazarene University, Jesus Film, your LINK missionaries, Child Sponsorship, World Evangelism Fund, outreach to our friends on the Reservations who have been drastically affected by COVID-19 to name a few. I hope and pray that you and your fellow delegates felt God's pull to respond to the vast needs all around us. I would love to hear everyone's testimony of how God is directing you to respond to this year's Convention offering. As David Wesley shared with us during Convention: "It's not our water"

I would also love for you to keep me informed with all your church is doing that is missional. Please email these to me at: nnmmipresident@gmail.com. I want to be in prayer with you in your missions. Our District is so spread out and it takes a heart of intentionality to stay connected to one another. I would truly LOVE to hear from you!

AS we move into this next year of NMI for our district, let us plan NOW to be engaged in mission daily!

Remember the 5 areas of Impact for NMI are:

Prayer, *World Evangelism Fund, *Engaging Children and Youth, *LINKS, -*Alabaster

Every church can participate in these 5 areas of Impact and thereby cultivate an atmosphere of Mission.

You are in my prayers as we all engage in the work set before us in this next year!

Joyfully,

Nicoloe Young

➔ One couple we met through Convention was Rusty and Lauren Brian who are staying in Clovis until they can get to Africa Nazarene University. They would love to come and speak at your churches while they are home. You can email them at: rbrian@africanazarene.org to communicate with them. They are looking to speak somewhere on Sunday July 26th. If you would like to see them on the 19th, you can watch the live feed from Carlsbad Church Street's FB page.
